The boarding house later became the Brockman Hotel, where John Henry died on 24 January 1882 from a fatal gunshot wound. Many of the relatives think it was an accident. Others thought it was suicide. John Henry was cleaning his gun which he carried as constable. Before moving to Tuscumbia, he had been a farmer. For the next few years, the family moved around a bit before moving back to Tuscumbia to the Leesom building, where Amanda kept her boarding house.

She leaved to mourn her passing a devoted husband, William R Harbison, a son, John Harbison of Kansas City, Mo, a daughter, Mrs. Ida Crane, of Etterville, Mo, eight grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Notes for MARY ELIZABETH BEAR:

Miller Co Autogram
February 24, 1938

The death of Mrs. S. A. Adcock which occurred Sunday evening at five o'clock, came as a great shock to her many relatives and friends here and elsewhere. Mrs. Adcock had been in rather poor health for several months. She was stricken with a cold while visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Smith of Owensville, who had just recently returned home from the hospital after a severe operation. Mrs. Adcock then developed pneumonia passing away about eight days after reaching home.

Mary Elizabeth Bear was born January 28, 1874, near Tuscumbia, the daughter of John and Delilah Dobson Bear, being 64 years and 23 days old at the time of her death. She grew to womanhood near and in Tuscumbia, and on December 17, 1899, she was united in marriage to Samuel A Adcock. To this union four children were born--- Raymond of Owensville; Ross and Garland of Tuscumbia, and Mrs. Harvey (Mildred) Smith of Owensville, all of whom, with their father, survive her. In addition to the husband and four children, she is mourned by two brothers, J. B. Bear of Las Animas, California, and W. M. Bear of Ash Grove; a half brother, J. W. Bear of near Crocker; and seven grandchildren, who are Raymond Arthur Adcock, Harold Wayne Adcock, Howard Benjamin, Betty Lou and Patsy Joan Adcock and Joyce Audrey and Phillip Harvey Smith. She was preceded in death, by one half sister Mrs. Minnie Wyrick.

She united with the Mt. Zion Christian church about 17 years ago and lived faithful to her Christian belief until her departure. She was a devoted mother, a kind neighbor, and she will not only be sadly missed by her own family, but the entire community feels the loss of this good woman.

Funeral services were conducted at the Mt. Zion Christian church at 9:00am by Rev. W. E. Waddell, pastor of the Tuscumbia Christian Church, who took as his text Psalm 17:15---"As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness I shall be satisfied when I awake, with thy likeness." Music was in charge of T C Wright, superintendent for the Tuscumbia Schools, assisted by a quartet composed of Mrs. T. C. Wright, Mrs. Curtis Barton, Judge W. S. Stillwell and Roger Stillwell. Following the impressive service attended by a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends, the body was laid to rest in the Bear Cemetery beside her parents.

Notes for LIZZIE AUGUSTA WYRICK:

Unknown Publication, March 1918

Lizzie Augusta Adcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Caloway Wyrick, was born April 31, 1884, died March 19, 1918, age 34 years, 11 months, 11 days. She was united in marriage to Ira Adcock Sept. 1900; to this union were born 10 children, 7 boys Calvin, Ralph, Arley, Stanley, William and Homer. Girls: Effie and Verry. Calvin, the oldest boy and two infant girls preceded her to the spirit land. She confessed faith in Christ, united with the Christian Church on the morning of March 19th and died in the evening of the same day.

Lizzie was born and raised near Tuscumbia, Miller Co. Mo., where she has a great many relatives and friends. She had the reputation in the neighborhood I which she lived and died as being a good neighbor and tender hearted woman. Some 3 or 4 years ago she became afflicted with lung trouble, lost her health, received treatment but all efforts failed. And in the evening of the 19th she quietly and peacefully passed out without a struggle.

Before she died she called for her children; the relatives presented the little group of 7; she gave them a mother's last farewell look. These poor little children have no mother now. Their dear mother went away. (balance of sentiments omitted here)

Among those left to mourn her loss is the husband, children, father and four sisters, Elvia Crismon, Melvia Lawson, Engie Weitz, Sarah Thompson, and Joseph, a brother. The funeral was conducted by the writer at the Mt. Zion Church in the presence of a very large congregation who had gathered there to pay their last tribute of respect, so justly due the departed. (sermon portion of obituary omitted here).

Without acting on the advice of any one the writer called for a freewill offering. The good people willingly responded to the call by contributing $22.79, this amount was turned over to Ira and the children....

The body was laid to rest in the Mt. Zion Cemetery. -C.M. Sooter
